Our mind is like a camera, snapping images at every second. Some of these pictures are clearly in focus, while others are blurry. They run together to form a movie of memories perpetually with us-a scrapbook of our entire lives. Sometimes, when we are depressed, we forget the moments when happiness surrounded us. Then we must flip through the pages of our scrapbooks and relive the best times.

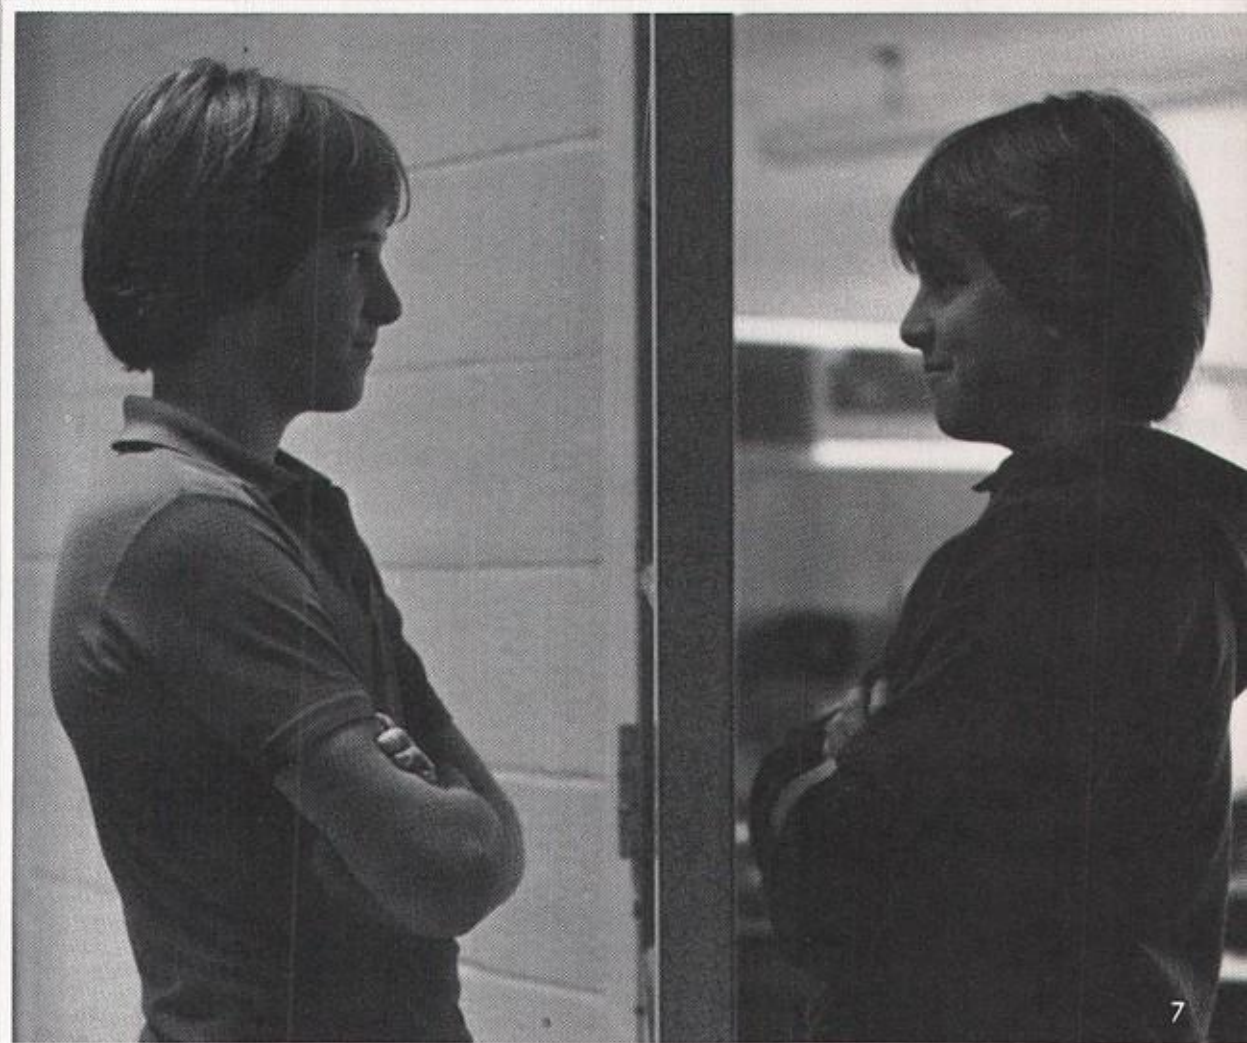

Images

*Inner thoughts reflected through expressions, actions, words.
 Memories of things we have experienced.
 A picture mirrored in my mind.
 Gentle breeze that stirs a dream or reflection.
 Endless spectrum of color that forms a picture.
 Shadows that represent memories.*

Images

*Impressions in my mind.
Magical visions created.
Adventures only I can see,
Generated by a mere reflection
Evident only to me.
Silent mirages we all experience.*

Images are those pictures of current events, that funny joke, or the look in the eyes of that person we passed in the hall. Images that stick with us might not always be from important events, but from little things that changed us, made us see the world a little differently. While we're daydreaming, images might come as revelations, a sudden understanding when staring at the stars or watching the setting sun.

Some of our images will last forever, while others only momentarily. As long as we live, our images will be the best part of our minds.

ORGANIZATIONS

A black and white photograph showing two individuals in silhouette, seated at a table and playing chess. They are positioned in front of a large, multi-paned window that allows bright light to enter the room, creating a strong backlight effect. The chess pieces are visible on the table between them. The overall mood is contemplative and strategic.

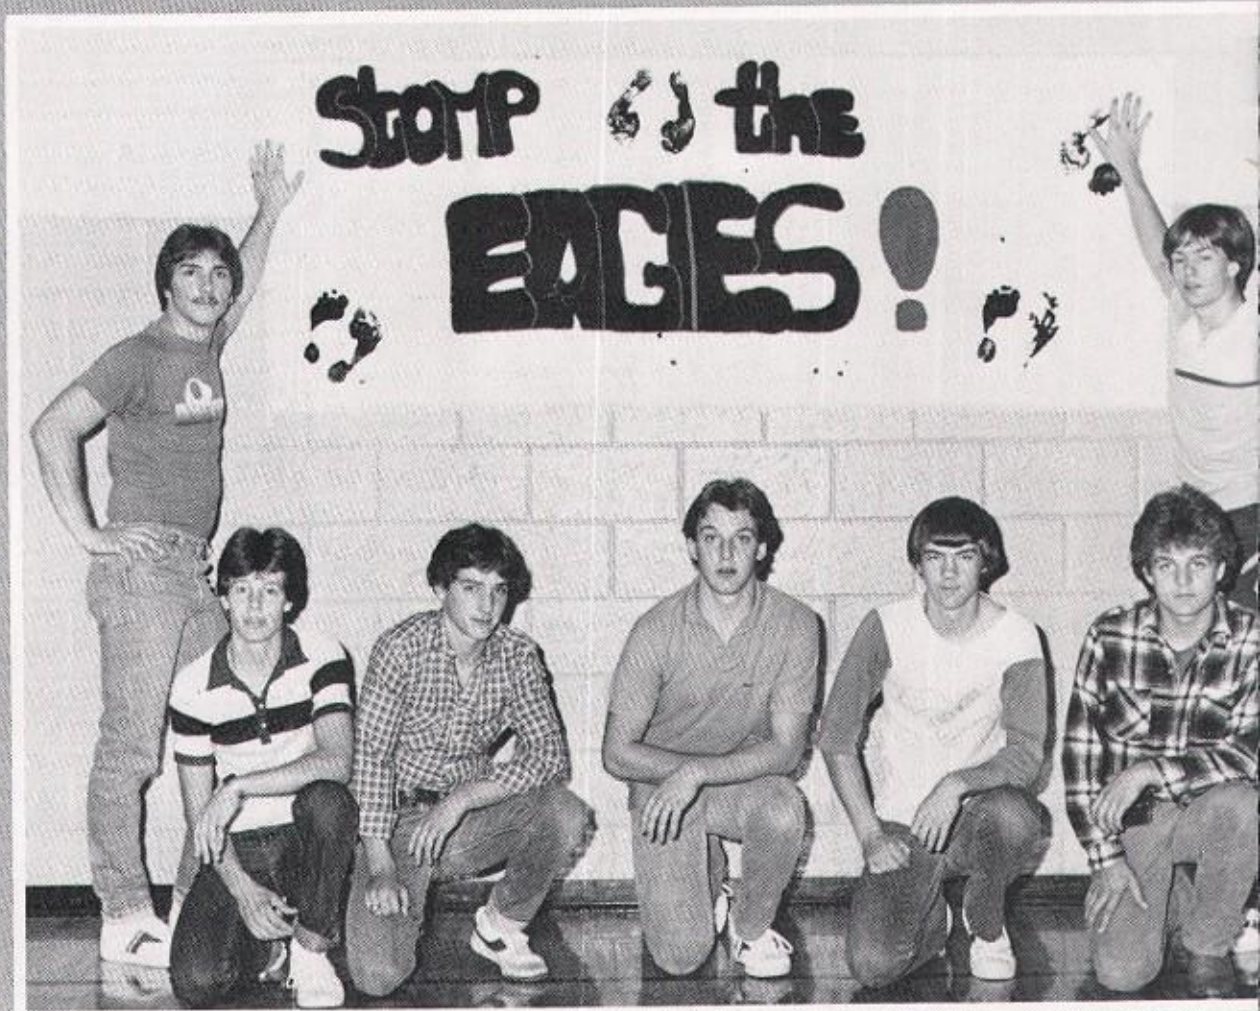

ORGANIZATIONS

CLUB MAKES CALLS

The main purpose of Sports Officiating Club is to provide referees for intramural sports. The members must be knowledgeable in all intramural sports. They learn refereeing techniques as well as rules for the sports they are officiating.

1. "Don't fight now, girls. The ball is coming down," exclaims Kevin Hoover.
2. Referees: Brian Mitchell, Kevin Hoover, Darrell Pletcher, Scott Sanner, Randy Bluebaugh, Ted Myers, Bob Sanner.
3. Scott Sanner calls a foul on Dana Lowery.

ROD, BOW STUDY NATURE

The Rod and Bow Club, advised by Mr. Hook and Mr. Livengood, learns the importance of conservation as well as the skills of fishing and archery. The members of the club work with the Pennsylvania Fish and Game Commission on stream improvement projects and learn about new conservation laws. The club raises money for a fishing trip in the spring. Mr. Hook suggested a motto for the club might be: "We are guided by the principle that we have not inherited the land from our ancestors; we have borrowed it from our descendants."

2. "Don't hit me," exclaims Lloyd Struckoff to Steve Saylor while Brian Smith looks on.

3. "Now what happened to that hole?" wonders Jim Peters.

4. "This is the finished product," expresses Shawn King.

5. "No, this is how you do it," orders Mr. Livengood.

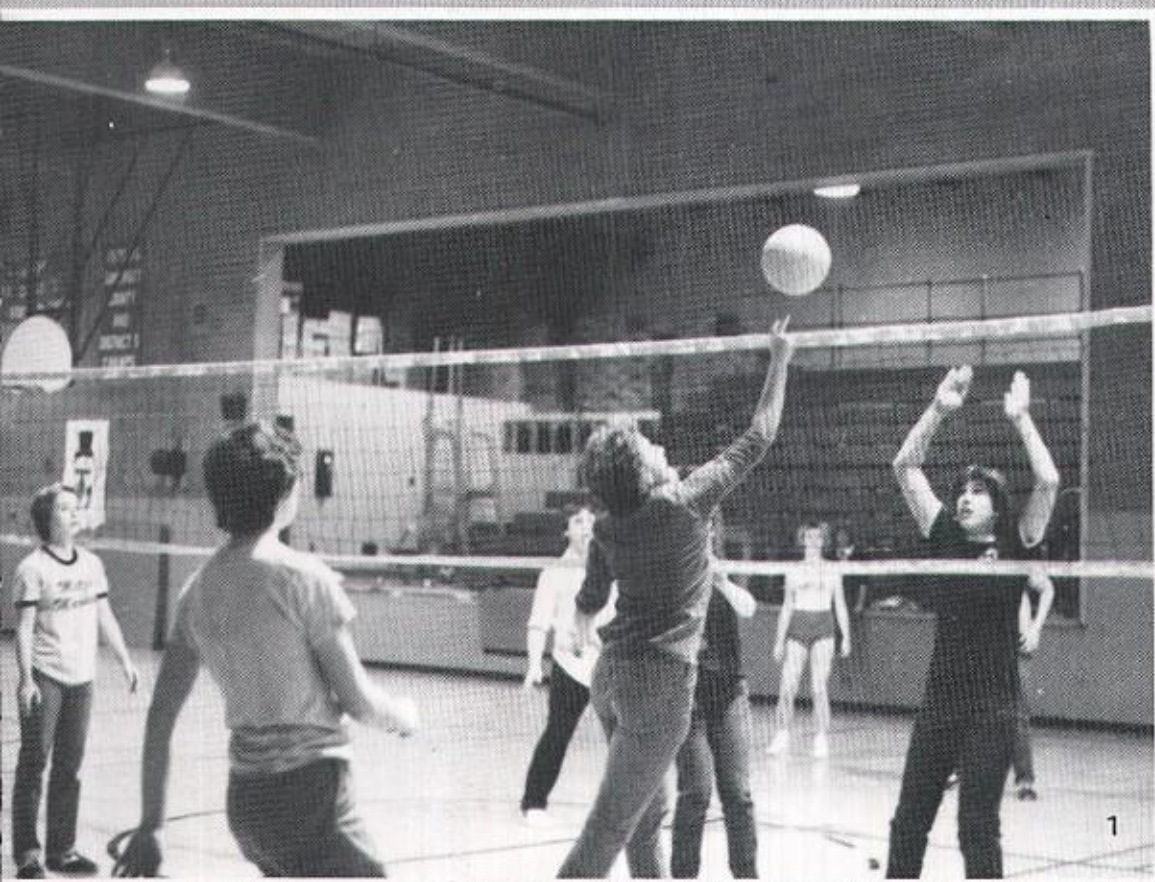

VOLLEYBALL CLUB

1. Amber Reese gives it all she's got.
2. Volleyball Club-Row 1: Dawn Jones, Ann Rose, Shanda Queer, Cindy Ohler, Kim Peterson, Mindy Gribble, Sheila Davis; Row 2: Dana Lowery, Rhonda Morgan, Amy Schrock, Julie Miller, Gina Stahl, Mandy Benford, Donna Shaffer, Stacey Pletcher, Gail Putman, Frannie Miller, Angie Morgan; Row 3: Diana Hauger, Brian Mitchell, Scott Sanner, Mark Sipe, Bill Ringer, Chris Gerber, Bob Snyder, Greg King, Scott Romesburg.
3. "It's just like plucking sparrows out of the air," exclaims Shanda Queer.
4. Dana Lowery sets the ball while Mike Pritts prepares to spike it.
5. It's a bird; it's a plane; no! It's Super Sanner!

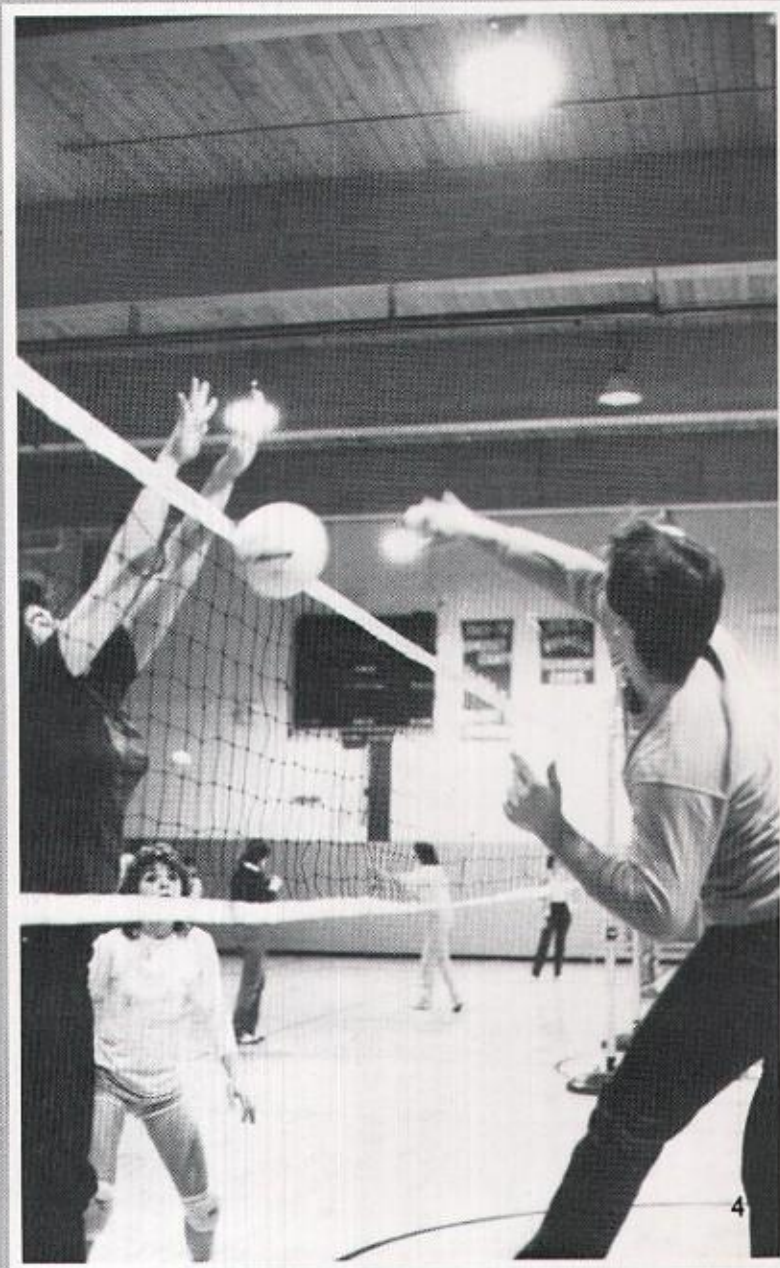

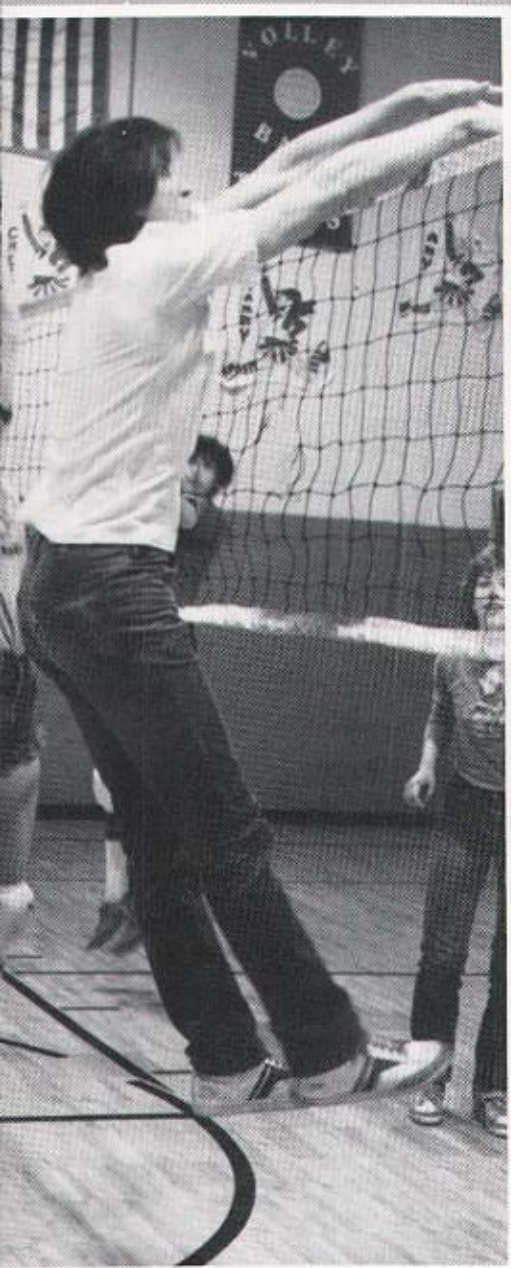

SET FOR ACTION

The Volleyball Club gives interested students an opportunity for competitive play with players from grades 10-12, including members of the team. The club, advised by Mrs. Dom and Mr. Baltzer, lets students play volleyball all year and improves the skill and knowledge of rules that they learned in gym.

1. Two finger tip, and over the net it goes.
2. Up, up, and away!
3. "An easy tip," thinks Dana Lowery.
4. Bill Ringer tries hard to spike.

SOCCER CLUB

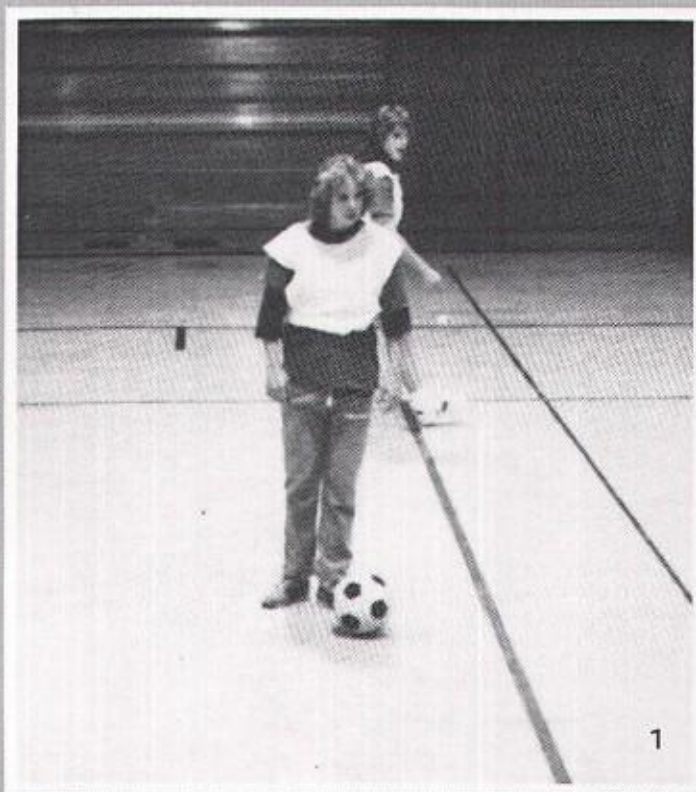

The Soccer Club teaches students the skills needed to become a member of the varsity team. Membership is open to any interested students in grades 7-9. This year the club contained 50 students. The club originally was formed to create an interest in soccer.

1. "You want me to do what with the ball?" screeches Dana Lowery.

2. Lynda Rose and Sandy Young race for the ball.

3. "The spotlight is on me!" thinks Lisa Myers.

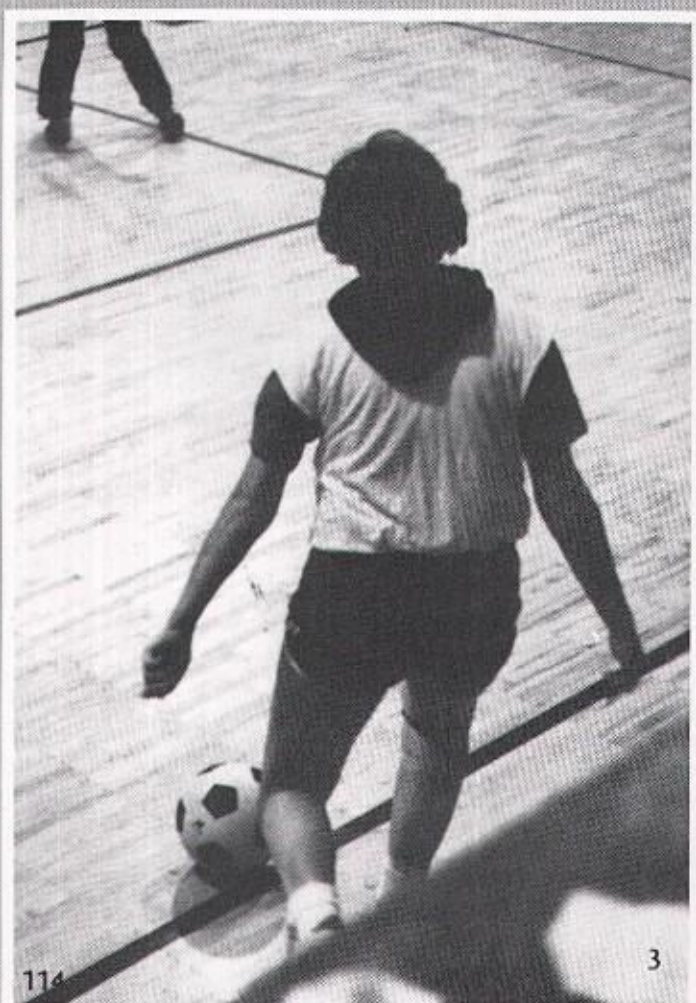

4. Row 1: Rhonda Morgan, Angie Sanner, Teryll Gribble, Beth Dull, Kim Peterson, Sandy Hay, Binnie Latshaw, Becky Benford, Erin Berkey, Michelle Reffner, Anita Yoder, Chris Sanner; Row 2: Teresa Spiker, Sandra Young, Lisa Myers, Cindy Faidley, Lisa Benford, Dana Lowery, Debbie Romesburg, Teresa Harbaugh, Melanie Kreger, Lynda Rose, Michele Krebs, Kelly Putman; Row 3: Dean Weaver, Brad Harbaugh, Barry Sadler, Brian Knopsnyder, Jay Blough, Brian Whipkey, Doug Mitchell, Rick Leonard, Dennis Trimpey, Coleman Reese, Charlie Meyers; Row 4: Jim Donovan, Damian Bryant, Kerry Beener, Jamie Bryant, Jim Miller, Scott Maust, Michael Phillippi, Jeff Miller, Matt Romesberg, Mark Trimpey.

3. "Hold still, ball!" murmurs Becky Benford.
4. "Watch this!" exclaims Becky Benford.
5. "Give me back my foot!" growls Cindy Faidley.

PREPARING FOR FUTURE

This year's FHA consists of 46 students. The members of the club are involved in many activities and community service projects. Some of these include working with the elderly, recipe exchanges, guest speakers, and experimental baking workshops. FHA provides an opportunity for students to become involved in their community, as well as to develop future job skills and meet new friends.

1. "Are we really going to be future housewives?" says Dawn Miller to Tracy Sterner.
2. Junior High FHA-Row 1: Angela Pyle, Melissa Walker, Dawn Miller, Kelly King, Diane Shaffer, Kelly Walker, Carla Snyder, Joyce Waltermire, Talesa Queer, Krista Pritts, Lorrie Phillippi; Row 2: Michelle Panich, Roberto Ansell, Laurie Hay, Denise Stevanus, Stephanie Percherke, Margo McClain, Lisa thing, Michele Sterner, Raquel Hyatt, Tracy Sterner, Christine Mishler, Cindy Reckner, Mrs. Pelesky.

3. Meal time is always confusing at Rockwood.
4. "I knew the job was messy when I took it," thinks Joyce Waltermire.
5. "If only I were as tall as Mr. Buck," thinks Mrs. Pelesky.
6. "Housewives do this every day," suggests Tina Newell.

WORKING FOR FUTURE

1. "You should have seen what happened next!" exclaims Raquel Hyatt.
2. "That was one strong onion," frowns Stephanie Percherke.
3. Senior High FHA-Row 1: Rhonda Shumaker, president; Tina Newell, vice president; Judy Weimer, secretary; Tina Beardmore, treasurer; Janice Klink, reporter; Row 2: Brenda McCartney, Pam Weller, Caryoln Spiker, Mrs. Pelesky, Darlene Beardmore, Linda Phillippi, Deanna Hotchkiss.
4. "One more time, just one more time!" says Mrs. Pelesky.
5. "Who put this slimy green thing in my box?" exclaims Deanna Hotchkiss.
6. "The long white arm of the law," appears to be Mrs. Pelesky.

The Chess Club meets weekly, the members competing in tournaments organized by the advisor, Mr. Rohlf. At the end of the year, the winners of the year's tournaments are recognized at the awards ceremony.

1. "I'd prefer to be in Rod and Bow Club when I lose," thinks Brad King.
2. Row 1: Kerry Snyder, Dave Armstrong, Owen Beachy, Toby Walker, Jeff Peck, Doug Anderson, Earl Spangler, Brad Kreger, Ken Gary, Chris Gary, Tracy Phillippi; Row 2: Tony Singo, James Mardis, Dawn Criswell, Beth Phillippi, Mr. Rohlf, advisor, Brad King, David Miller, Eric Gula, Carol Fresh, Billy Latshaw; Row 3: Ricky Slayton, Ronald Hoyman, Danny McDevitt, Ricky Most, James Donovan, Matt Leskey, Jessie Klink, Albert Landis.
3. "I think I just lost," says Ricky Most.
4. "Wake up, it's your turn," says Ricky Slayton.
5. "Yes, playing chess can be fun," says Albert Landis.
6. "Now which one do I move?" wonders Jeff Peck.

KINGS VS. QUEENS

1

The Rifle Club teaches "safety first" in handling rifles. Mr. Vought, the advisor, also teaches students the necessary skills for marksmanship. The students in the club are awarded medals by the NRA and the Army for accumulating points by shooting at targets from 50 feet.

1. "Don't shoot until you see the reflection of his glasses," whispers Wayne Weimer to Craig Waltermire.
2. "Mr. Vought, you'd better move," suggests Greg Sterner.
4. "Not bad, hit him right between the eyes," thinks Craig Waltermire.
5. "One out of ten isn't bad," thinks Dean Vought.
6. "Here come the Indians," yells Wayne Weimer.

FFA WORKS

The FFA gives its members an opportunity to learn by doing. FFA members participate in contests involving many agricultural subjects, as well as public speaking and parliamentary procedure. The members also learn agricultural mechanics and the use of the computer in agriculture. All of FFA's activities are supported by its fund raisers. This year the FFA raised money through the sale of citrus fruit, bulbs and plants, and firewood. The motto of the FFA is "Learning to do, doing to learn, earning to live, living to serve."

A.F.S. MAKES WORLD TURN

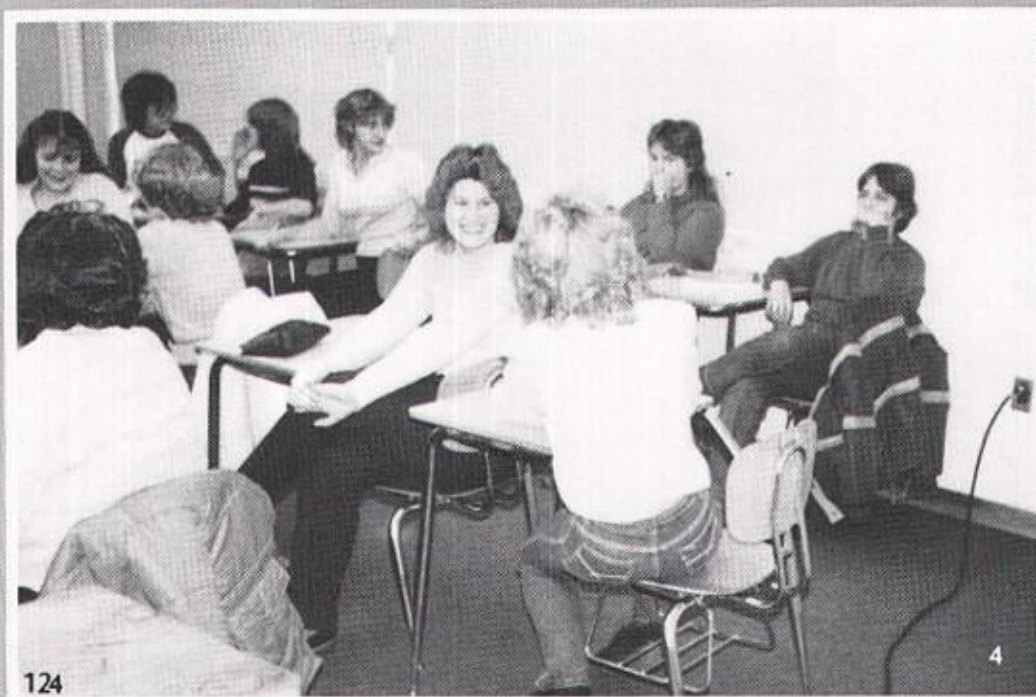

The AFS program is in its sixth year; in that time, 9 students have visited the school, and 2 Rockwood students have traveled to foreign countries. The AFS provides students with an opportunity to travel to foreign countries and meet the students who come here. This year's exchange students were Edna Tokumoto from Brazil, who lived with Perry and Sharon Childs, and Gavin Cleary from Australia, who lived with Richard and Lynn Shaffer.

1. Row 1: Gavin Cleary, Tracy Drabish, Ruth King, Sonja Hearn, Edna Tokumoto, Becky Hixson; Row 2: Leslie Grimes, Ellen Gerber, Sherry Boucher, Chris Madela, Tracey Sheets, Dawn Russ, Michelle Marker, Sandy Young, Wendy Pritts; Row 3: Janie Young, Teresa Spiker, Rita Barclay, Barbara Stutzman, Krista Kartesz, Donna Mardis; Row 4: Ann Locklin, Michelle Hearn, Lisa Spangler, Laurie Meyers, Lynda Rose, Kelly Geyer, Michele Krebs; Row 5: Scott Sanner, Karyn Peterson, Melissa Ohler, Lisa Conn; Row 6: Bradley Henry, Vanessa Younkin, Lee Ann Stutzman, Tracy Leskey, Beth Tinkey, Karen Lape, Melanie Kreger.

2. Edna becomes the heartthrob of Rockwood Area High School.

3. Gavin Cleary can't believe that there are no kangaroos in America.

4. Wendy Weimer and Holly Pletcher discuss plans for the AFS weekend.

HONOR STUDENTS EXCEL

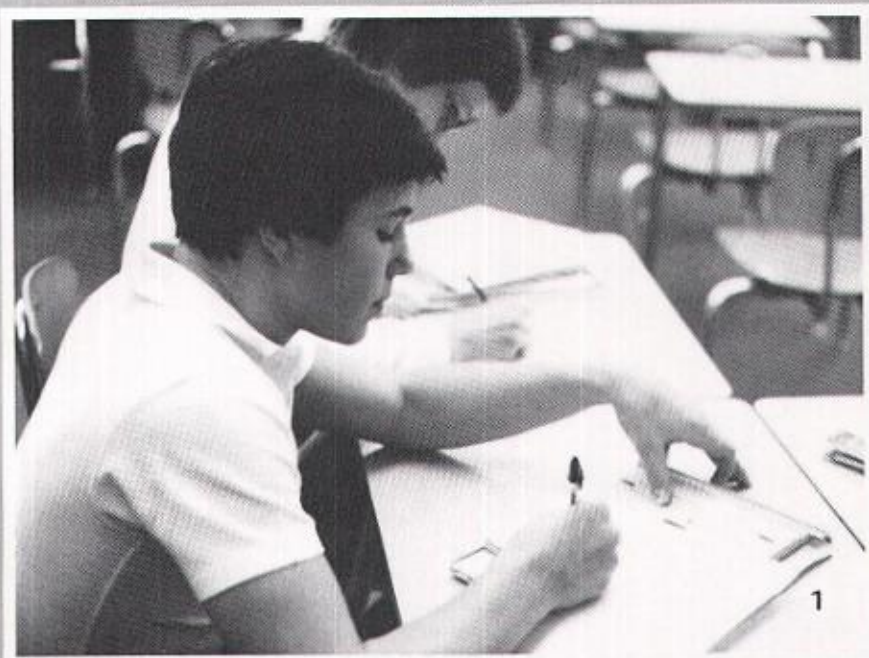

The National Honor Society stresses the qualities of leadership, service, and character. Students can become members of the NHS in either their junior or senior years. The juniors are nominated on the basis of their sophomore and first semester junior grades. Seniors are nominated for the sophomore, junior and first semester senior grades. NHS members are actively involved, tutoring many students in the high school.

1. Row 1: Julie Miller, Dawn Pletcher, Ann Rose, Kelly Brougher; Row 2: Diane Waltermire, Dawn Jones, Greg King; Row 3: Diana Hauger, Amy Schrock, Kerry Snyder, Darrell Mitchell, Scott Romesburg.
2. Mrs. Miller holds up the wall during meetings.
3. "Just let me say this about that," says Greg King.
4. "Of course, I can spell cat!" exclaims Dawn Pletcher.

'ROCKET REPORT' INFORMS SCHOOL

This year's newspaper staff is composed entirely of sophomores. They publish the "Rocket Report" every 2 weeks, doing all the work themselves. Work on the school newspaper develops many important journalism skills such as interviewing, reporting, organizing, and meeting deadlines.

1. "I've always been good at shorthand," explains Ron Walker.

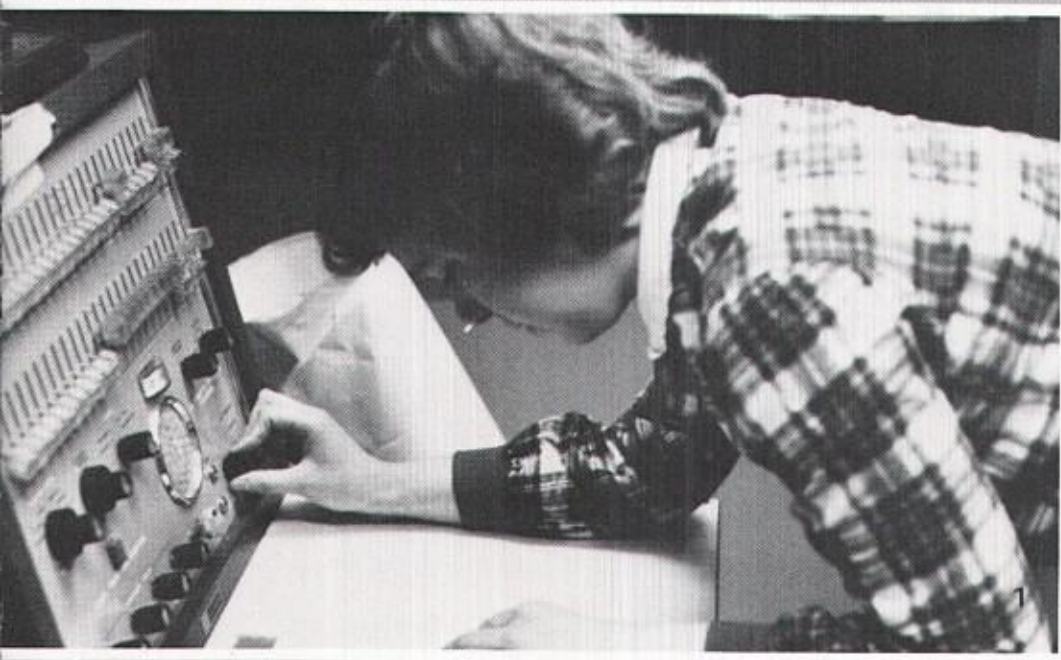

2. Diane Yoder works on a story for the next issue.

3. Row 1: Dave Tolitsky, Ted Knoblach, Jim Gontis, Mike Moses, Bill Rose, Greg Sterner, Ron Walker; Row 2: Tracy Philippi, Diane Yoder, Gail Putman, Duane Nicklow, Sue Davis, Julie Wahl, Chris Hay, Dean Vought.

4. Julie Wahl does her Perry White impersonation as "Rocket Report" editor.

ANNOUNCERS BEGIN DAY

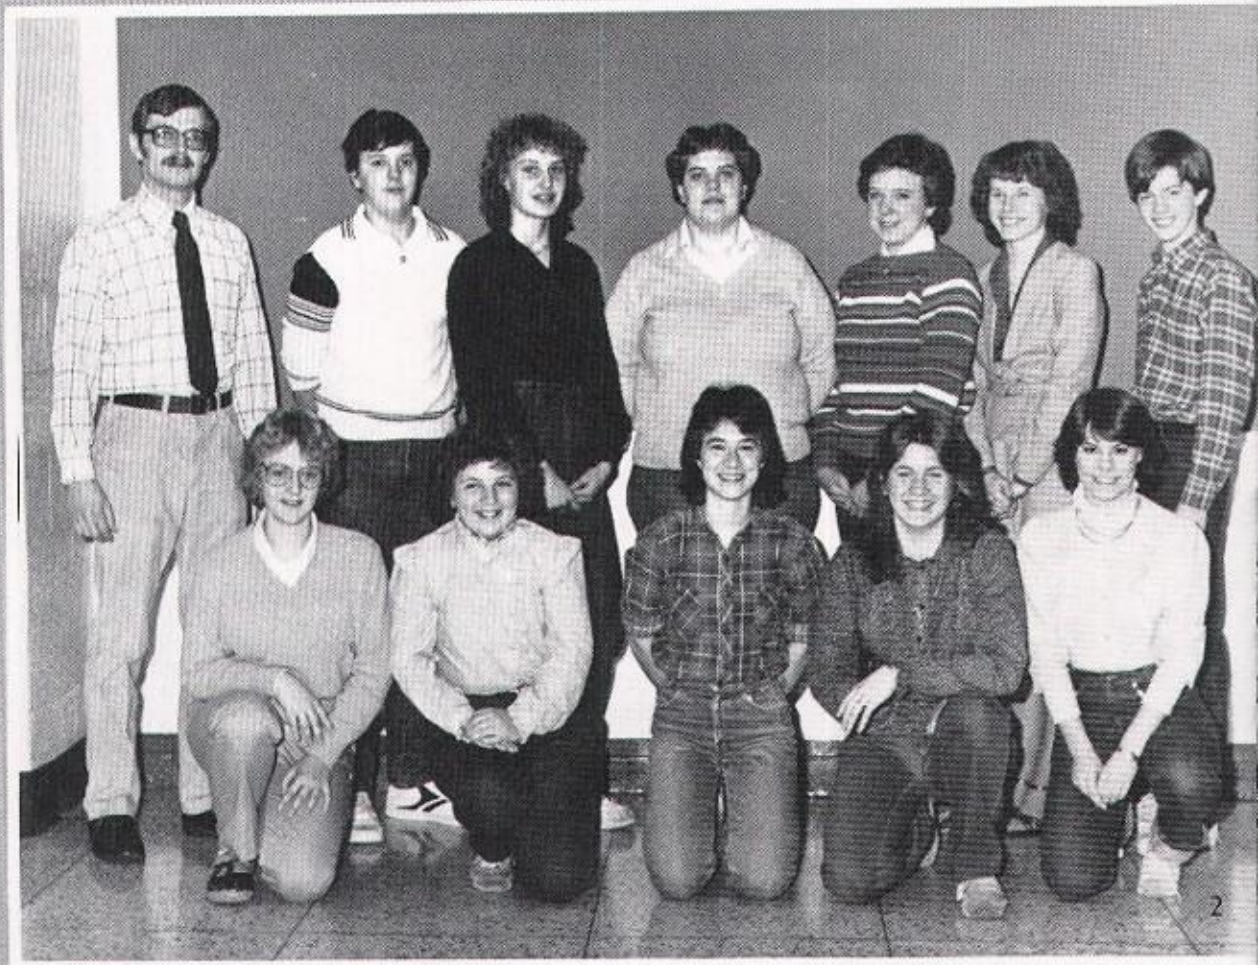

The student announcers read the announcements every morning. There is a different announcer each week, and the students must learn to read unrehearsed material on the air, as well as to decipher various types of handwriting quickly.

1. Amy Puffenberger announces the horse race results.
2. Laura Rager can't believe that it's that time again.
3. Betina Pavri has trouble smiling and talking at the same time.
4. Miriam Forney, Laura Rager, Betina Pavri, Amy Puffenberger.

SPEECH TEAM SPEAKS OUT

The Speech Team gives students an opportunity to compete with schools from Western Pennsylvania in up to 9 categories. All schools compete equally, regardless of school size, and students have a chance to earn a varsity letter on the basis of points gained by speaking. Members of the team have the opportunity to advance to district, state, and national competitions, and gain confidence in themselves and their speaking abilities. This year's team raised money to attend the Pittsburgh Public Theatre workshop.

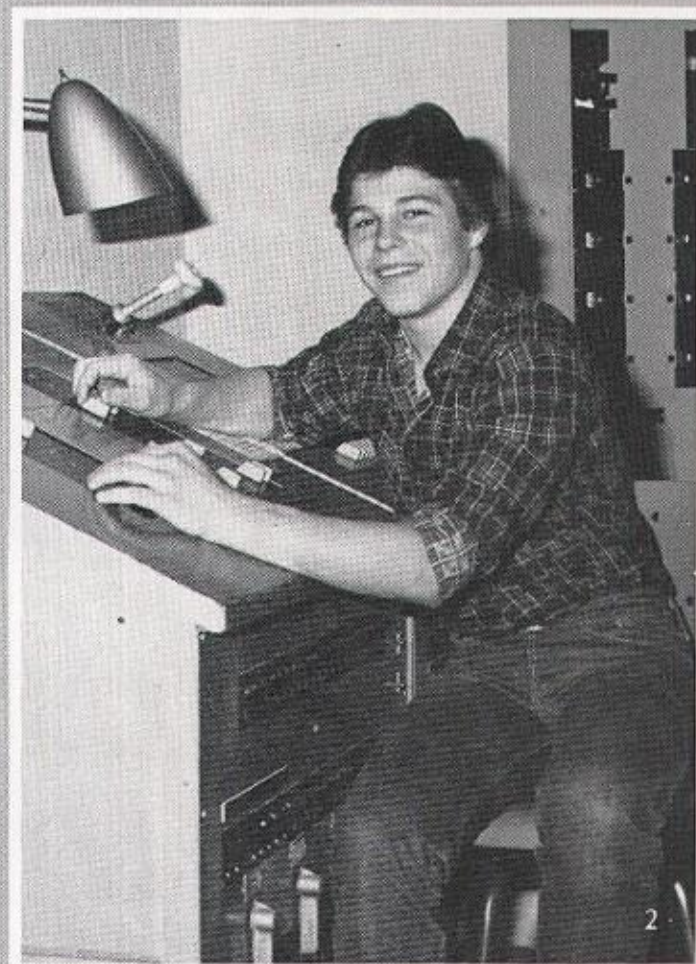

1. Diane Waltermire is on her way to districts.

YEARBOOK CLASS

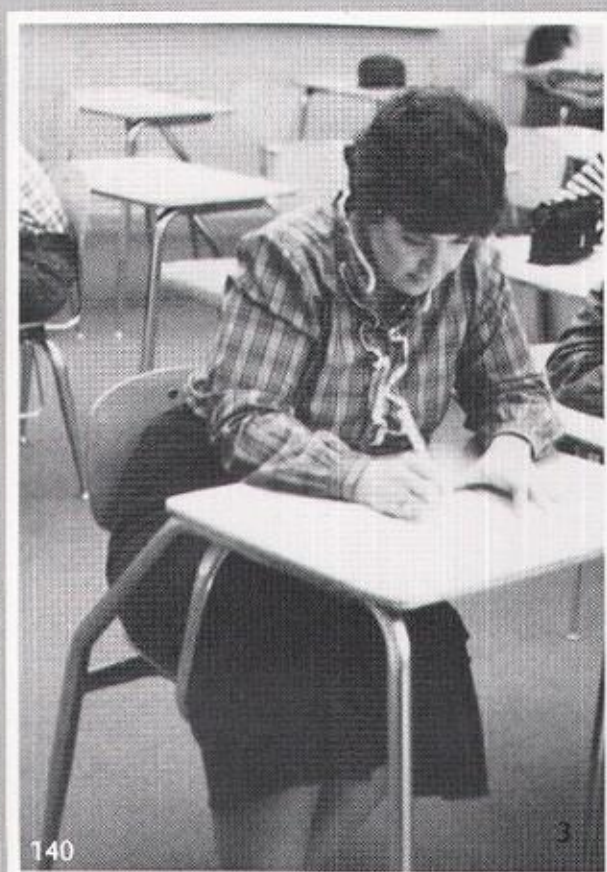

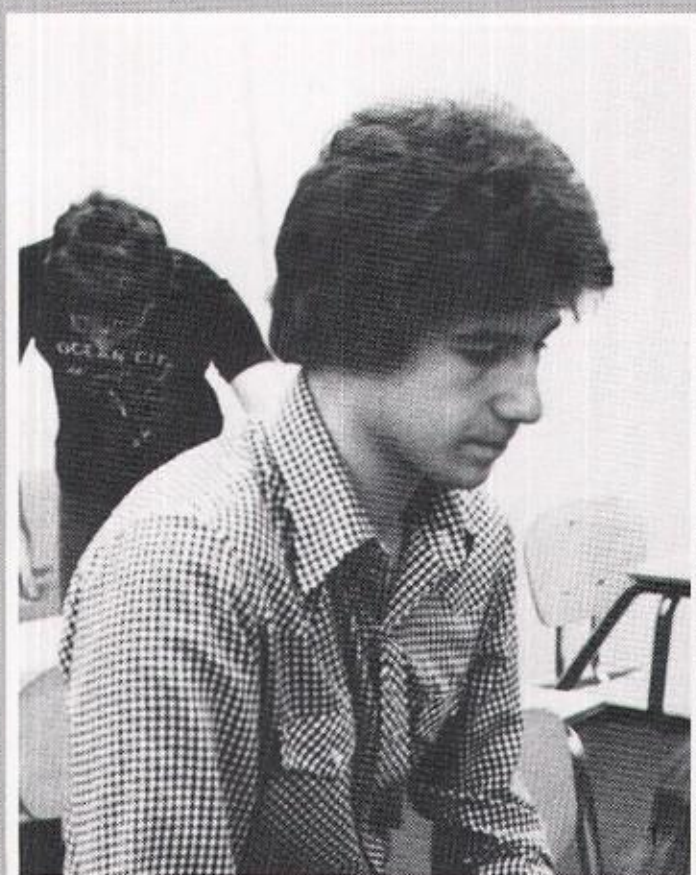

The yearbook class alternates between work on the yearbook and a course in either American or English literature. This year the class contained 36 students who were split into different groups. Each group worked on a different section which was headed by an editor. The yearbook class teaches various journalism skills like laying out pages, selecting and fitting pictures, and meeting deadlines. Students also learn the importance of responsibility and must be able to delegate their authority. The motto for the yearbook is, "There is no such thing as not making a deadline."

EVENING

EVENTS

ASSEMBLIES HELD

Throughout the year, several assemblies were held in the auditorium and in the gym. Among these assemblies was a presentation by the Harlem All-Stars. This group of basketball players provided entertainment both during school and again in the evening when they challenged the faculty. Another assembly was held as a "send-off" for the Rockwood volleyball team. This included a skit by the cheerleaders. Finally, Professor Mike Malley, an ESP expert, demonstrated his knowledge of the human mind.

1. A Harlem All-Star shows-off his talent.
2. The Harlem All-Stars.
3. Jill Romesberg requests a book at the Rockwood Bookstore.
4. Lee Purbaugh timidly waits to see what will happen next.
5. Professor Malley pulls a trick with his cards.

BLOOD DONATED

On November 17, 1982, the Student Council sponsored a bloodmobile through the Johnstown Red Cross. The event was coordinated by Carol Locklin and Amber Reese. Held in the library, the bloodmobile collected a total of 43 pints of blood, although 56 people tried to give. Because of the great amount of participation, the bloodmobile returned on April 3, 1983.

1. "I'm really not too enthusiastic about this," says Ruth King.
2. "You know, the best part about this is eating all these cookies," says Mandy Benford to Darlene King.
3. After witnessing this, the donors were a little leery about giving blood.
4. "Hey, have you guys forgotten about me?" questions Patricia Holyfield.
5. "I've got to watch over him and make sure he is all right," says Shanda Queer.

CHRISTMAS ACTIVITIES VARY

This year's Christmas activities included a teachers' tea, teachers' play, a movie entitled "Going in Style," and activities for each class in the gym. The teachers' tea, which was sponsored by Student Council, offered teachers an opportunity to enjoy baked goods, punch, tea and coffee, and some relaxation during their free time. Student Council had their mailbox in operation so that Christmas cards could be sent to people throughout the school. To add to the festivity of the Christmas season, a tree was erected in the lobby, and a door-decorating contest was held. Winners were Mr. Rohlf's room in eighth grade; Mrs. Cornish's, tenth; and Miss Kartesz's, eleventh. Winners received an ice cream party on the Christmas "day of activities."

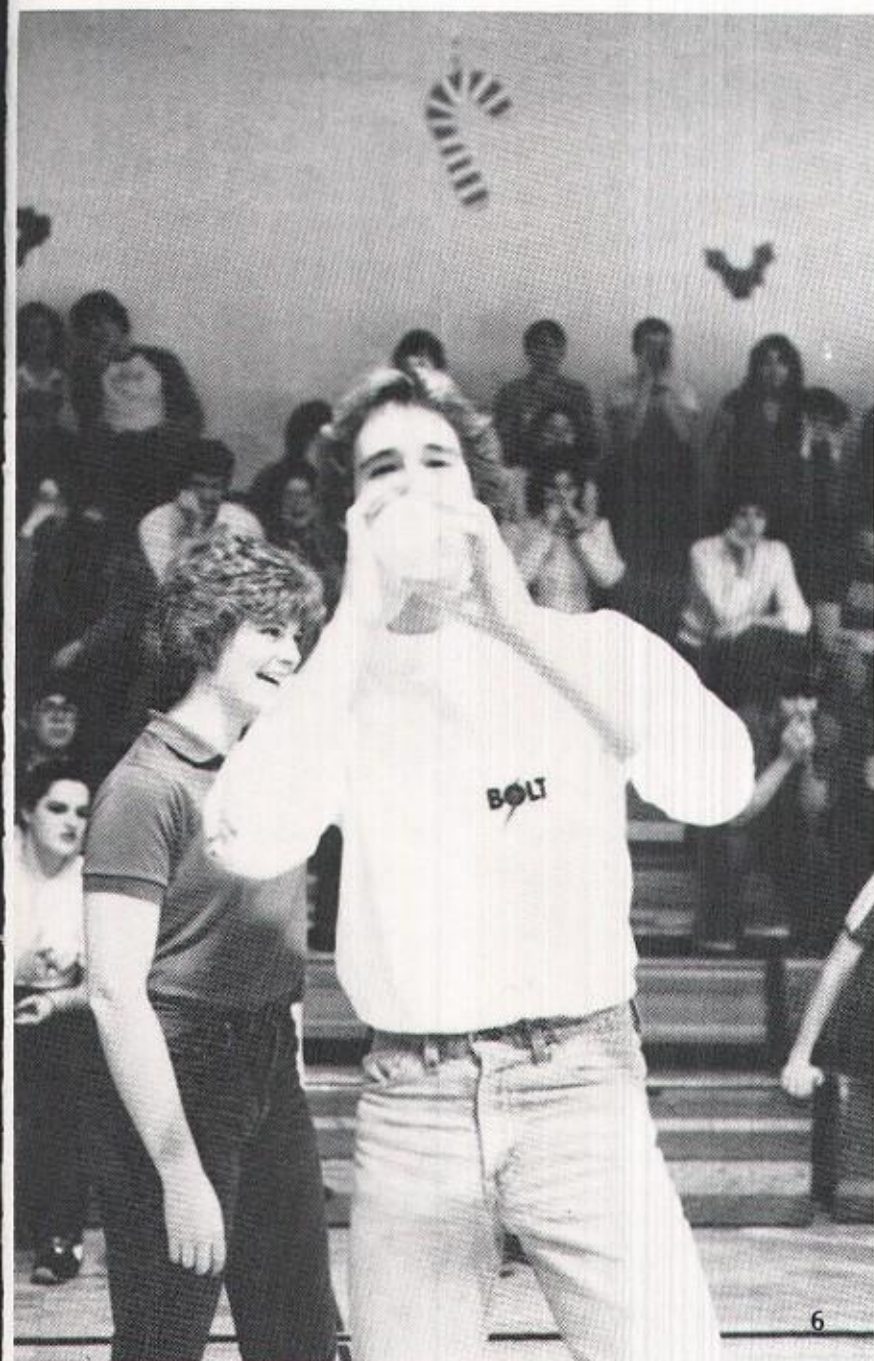

TEACHERS ENTERTAIN

1. Student Council prepares an attractive table setting for the teachers' tea.
2. Becky King and Dawn Pletcher entertain themselves before the games begin.
3. The team observes Duane Nicklow as he endures the agony of defeat.
4. "This outfit is not my idea of being in fashion," says Mrs. Cornish to Mrs. Miller.
5. Mr. Lewis bravely volunteers his tie to be cut by the great Whymerini.
6. "This is more fun now than when I was a little girl," announces Mrs. Shaffer.
7. The real talents of our teachers are found here, within this motley group of cheerleaders.
8. Mr. Lewis flaps his wings in an attempt to regain his balance.
9. Mr. Gildersleeve and Mrs. Millin relax in front of their fireplace and the Christmas tree, portrayed by Miss Kartesz.
10. One of Mr. C.'s reindeer, Mrs. Lamp, is shot and abandoned in favor of a bicycle.

GAMES REFLECT

After seeing a movie entitled "Going in Style," which served as the opener for the annual Christmas "day of activities," the junior high went to the gym to participate in activities while the senior high had the pleasure of viewing the teachers' play. The gym activities included racing in garbage bags, feeding bananas, passing Lifesavers on toothpicks, bursting balloons, and eating crackers then whistling. The competitions began with eighth grade defeating seventh. In the eighth and ninth grade confrontation, ninth emerged the champions. When the senior high arrived at the gym, tenth won against eleventh and then again against twelfth to be named the champions.

HOLIDAYS

1. Suzette Hange massages Jim Miller's chin as they pass a Lifesaver.
2. "Come on, Desa, we have to start this game," yells Amy Schrock as she coaxes Desa Stahl to come along.
3. "Ah, Gina, you missed my mouth," screams Dennis Trimpey to Gina Stahl.
4. "I'm sure that J.R. is really trying to stick this banana down my shirt," proclaims John Neil.
5. Greg Boucher gets to a lower level in order to get the Lifesaver from Carol Locklin.
6. J.R. Enos takes time out to demonstrate the proper technique in blowing up a balloon.
7. The sophomores quickly pass the balloon between them in order to win the game.
8. Becky Hixson smashes the banana into Bobby Metzgar's face to hurry the process up a little.
9. Diana turns around to notice the action behind her.

MANDY CROWNED

Rockwood's Third Annual Homecoming activities were held February 18, 1983. The 1983 Homecoming Queen was Mandy Benford, escorted by Carl Ansell. The 1983 Princesses were Lisa Mognet, escort Bill Ringer; and Vicki Yoder, escort J.R. Enos. The Homecoming Court was as follows: eleventh-Lori Mognet, escort Luke Ohler; tenth-Suzette Hange, escort Ron Walker; ninth-Angie Sanner, escort Bob Mathias. The 1982 Homecoming Queen, Andrea Wohlfarth, was present to crown the new queen. The crown and flower bearers were Ann Locklin, Molly Moses, Krista Pritts, and Kim Peterson. The Mistress of Ceremonies was Diana Hauger.

The activities included crowning of the queen during half time of the basketball game, the basketball competition against Meyersdale, and the homecoming dance following the game. The past and present wrestling coaches were honored during the half time activities and given a gift of appreciation.

HOMECOMING QUEEN

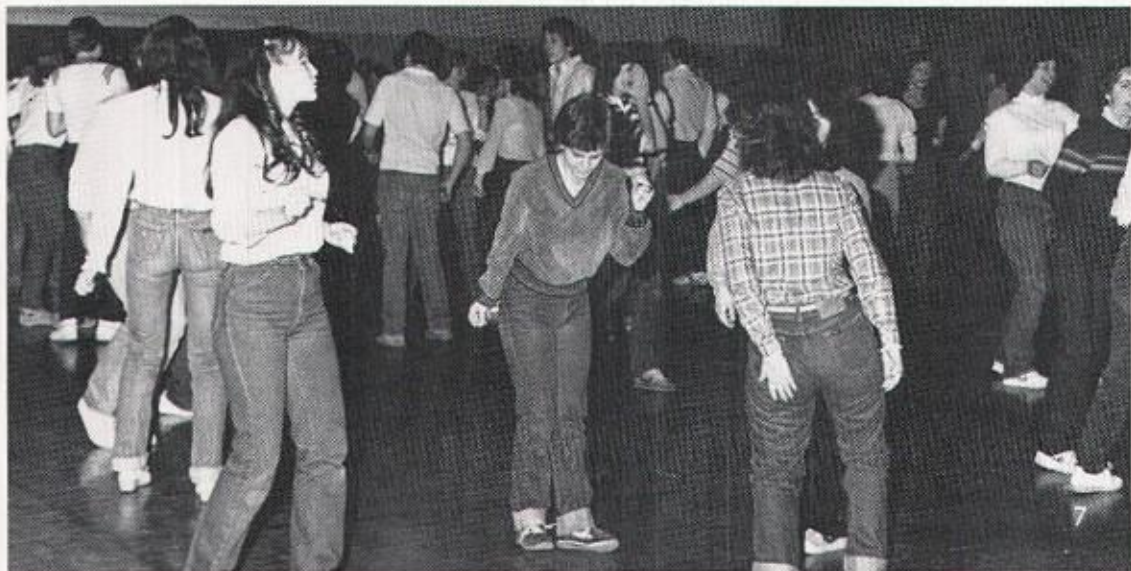

1. Queen Mandy Benford and her escort, Carl Ansell, are in a spotlight dance.
2. Suzette Hange and her escort, Ron Walker
3. Angie Sanner and her escort, Bob Mathias
4. Bill Ringer and Lisa Mognet enjoy their slow dance.
5. "Hey, don't interrupt my dance with Vicki," warns J.R. Enos.
6. Coach Baltzer congratulates Brian Mitchell on reaching his 1000 point career mark during the homecoming game.
7. A group of girls enjoys the homecoming dance.
8. Last year's queen, Andrea Wohlfarth, crowns Mandy Benford Homecoming Queen.
9. Lori Mognet and her escort, Luke Ohler
10. Homecoming Queen and Court: Angie Sanner, Lisa Mognet, Mandy Benford, Vicki Yoder, Suzette Hange, and Lori Mognet.

CLASS OF '85 HOSTS SOPH-SENIOR

Sponsored by the sophomore class, the Soph-Senior, with the theme of "Up Where We Belong," was held on Nov. 13, 1982. The dance was held in the gymnasium which was beautifully decorated in light and dark blue. Couples enjoyed dancing to the music of "Orange Fire."

1. Couples enjoy a slow dance.
2. What are Julie Wahl and Darrell Mitchell smiling about?
3. In the center of attention are Raymond, Frannie, Gina, Kim, Duane, and Suzette.
4. Brenda McCartney and Tina Beardmore sway to the music.
5. Mandy Benford and her date are entertained by the band.
6. Mrs. Cornish gazes at Mr. Cornish as he laughs at his own joke.
7. Tammy Phillippi and Dana Lowery and their dates take it easy as they enjoy the music.
8. "Let's party!"

FOURTEEN GIRLS VIE

The Maple Princess contest was held the evening of December 3. Fourteen girls participated in the contest. The event was marked by a variety of fine talents and beautiful gowns. Wendy Weimer was chosen as Princess. Her talent included doing sign language to and singing "The Rose." The 1st runner-up was Katty Latshaw, and the 2nd runner-up was Shanda Queer.

1. Maple Princess Contestants: Tina Newell, Katty Latshaw, Shanda Queer, Vicki Yoder, Holly Pletcher, Diane DuPont, Wendy Weimer, Sondra Ansell, Janice Klink, Lori Zorn, Amy Meyers, Pam Hay. Not shown: Penny Ritenour, Sandy Dodson.

2. Tina Newell chats on the phone for a humorous monologue.

3. A medley of Kenny Rogers' hits is Holly Pletcher's specialty.

4. Sondra Ansell glides across the stage like a beautiful southern belle.

5. Wendy Weimer, our Maple Princess

6. A mixture of illusion and music adds a magical touch to Amy's dance.

7. Janice Klink charms the audience with a smile.

8. Sandy Dodson is "Off to See the Wizard."

9. Katty Latshaw, 1st runner-up

10. Shanda Queer, 2nd runner-up

CHARLIE,
20 my best friend. REM. All the fun times we had down at the swimming hole.
And over at scott's land. NEVER forget them good times BECAUSE I won't. forget the bad times like when I like the lighter in your room. But still I will forget the bad times. There's always going to be more fun times. And lots more PARTYS like on my birthday I'll never forget walking home at 5:30 in the morning. And you throwing up and PASSING OUT on DAVE'S bed with LARRY in it. Lots of lock in EVERY thing you attempt to. And always KEEP your BEER bottle to a new and exciting YEAR.

Charla!
Da real nice & crazy girl I've known for awhile rem.
The crazy rides to Uo-Tech when we stopped along the road to check under the hood
rem. The time you down Buffy & me went to McDoe's? & men we got those spinner thing a fishery Big wheel & don't forget
The humane society with all of those wte puppies.
good luck in all you do & who you do it with.
what you do it with.
